

THE REPORTER

Nursing Newsletter from POGO
PEDIATRIC ONCOLOGY GROUP OF ONTARIO

FOLLOW US: in @ v f

Spring 2025 Edition Little Steps, Big Stories

As the season changes and brings fresh energy, we're excited to share new ideas, updates, and opportunities in pediatric oncology nursing. We want to take a moment to recognize and sincerely appreciate your dedication, compassion, and invaluable contributions to our field.

Your commitment to advancing pediatric oncology care makes a profound difference in the lives of children and families in Ontario every day.

Keep reading for exciting updates!

Dmasse

Diana Masse, RN
POGO Nursing Committee Chair

Childhood Cancer Care: A Guide for First Nations Communities

The shock of a childhood cancer diagnosis makes it hard for families to absorb all the information they receive at disclosure. This new video is designed to bridge the gaps.

Discover how...

Nursing Spotlight

Meet Renee Smith of Windsor Regional Hospital

Reflective Practice

Read reflections from bedside Nurse Clare Holton

Blina Webinar

Get expert recommendations for administering blinatumomab

Fatigue Guidelines

Find out what pediatric oncology nurses need to know

Education and Events

Check out upcoming events & resources

Career Board

Explore new pediatric oncology opportunities

If you have a story or content suggestions, please email pogonursing@pogo.ca
Don't forget to subscribe to receive POGO's Nursing Newsletter!